A Bit About...

Baptism

A sacrament is an outward sign of a grace that God gives us in our soul. When we are baptized, water is poured on our head as a symbol of the sin being washed out of our soul.

You might be wondering if babies need to get baptized when they haven't even done any sins yet. But baptism also takes away original sin, which comes to us from Adam and Eve. Baptism also gives us the grace we need to live a good Christian life. Of course babies can't sin when they are very young, but Baptism will give them grace when they need it.

Why do you think that Jesus got baptized, since He didn't have original sin or actual sins? Jesus didn't need to get rid of any sins, but He was baptized to give us an example.

Baptism of the Lord - 11th January 2026 - Year A

Baptism of the Lord - 11th January 2026 - Year A

Anointed Ones.

Jesus presents himself for baptism in today's Gospel not because He is a sinner, but to fulfill the word of God proclaimed by His prophets. He must be baptized to reveal that He is the Christ, "the anointed one", the Spirit-endowed Servant promised by Isaiah in the First Reading. His baptism marks the start of a new world, a new creation, instituting the Christian sacrament different and greater to the baptism of John.

As Isaiah prophesied, the Spirit descends upon Jesus as the Spirit hovered over the face of the deep in the beginning. As it was in the beginning, at the Jordan the majestic voice of the Lord also thunders above the waters. The Father opens the heavens and declares Jesus to be His "beloved son." God had long prepared the Israelites for His coming, as Peter preaches in the Second Reading. Jesus was anticipated in the "beloved son" given to Abraham, and in the calling of Israel as His "first-born son". Jesus is the divine son begotten by God, the everlasting heir promised to King David.

He is "a covenant of the people (Israel)" and "a light to the nations," Isaiah says. By the new covenant made in His blood, God has gathered the lost sheep of Israel together with whoever fears Him in every nation. Christ has become the source from which God pours out His Spirit on Israelites and Gentiles alike. In Baptism, all are anointed with that same Spirit, made beloved sons and daughters of God. Indeed, we are Christians, literally "anointed ones."

We are the "sons of God" in the Psalm, called to give glory to His name in His temple. Let us pray that we remain faithful to our calling as His children, that our Father might call us what He calls His Son, "my beloved; my favour rests on Him."

St. Anthony, Abbot - Feast Day January 17th

Anthony's life was not one of observing, but of becoming. He was born in Lower Egypt in AD 251 to wealthy landowner parents who died when he was about twenty. He inherited their three hundred acres of land and the responsibility for a young sister. But one day in church, he heard a reading of Matthew 19:21: "If you wish to be perfect, go, sell your possessions, and give the money to the poor.....then come, follow me." Not content to sit still and meditate and reflect on Jesus' words, he walked out of the church and gave away all his property except what he and his sister needed to live on.

Upon hearing Matthew 6:34, "So do not worry about tomorrow", he gave away everything he remained and entrusted his sister to a convent. He then left to live an ascetic life outside the village, praying, fasting, and performing manual labor. It wasn't enough to listen to words, he had to become what Jesus said. He later headed out into the desert and remained there for 13 years.

Though Anthony himself did not organize or create a monastery, a community grew around him based on his example of living an ascetic and isolated life.

Anthony died when he was one hundred and five years old. A life of solitude, fasting, and manual labor in the service of God had left him a healthy, vigorous man until very late in life. And he never stopped challenging himself to go one step beyond in his faith.

Saint Athanasius, who knew Anthony and wrote his biography said, "Anthony was not known for his writings nor for his worldly wisdom, nor for any art, but simply for his reverence toward God." Athanasius' biography helped propagate Anthony's ideals. Athanasius writes, "For monks, the life of Anthony is a sufficient example of asceticism."

We may wonder nowadays at what we can learn from someone who lived in the desert, wore skins, ate bread, and slept on the ground. We may wonder how we can become him. We can become Anthony by living his life of radical faith and complete commitment to God.

For his importance among the Desert Fathers and to later Christian monasticism, he is known as the Father of Monks.

ABOUT BAPTISM

Baptism is the primal Sacrament of Initiation into God's life, a rite of inauguration or initiation in which and through which we enter into a way of living and sharing life with others and with God. It removes both the guilt and punishment due to Original sin.

Baptism gives us a new identity. We have a name in the family of God, the name given to us when we are baptized. God calls us by name and uniquely identifies us. We become children in His family.

Baptism, then, isn't just a pretty ceremony that is a part of our family's tradition. We don't bring our newborns to church and have them baptised simply to please our parents and our grandparents. Nor is it something that is of a momentary character, as if everything happens when we're baptized. Baptism is an inauguration into a lifetime adventure in which we try to live with God and with others in specific ways.

God our Father in heaven wants us to be intimate with Him. He wants us to know Him, to love Him, and to be close to Him. He wants us to work with Him to bring His creation into completion, to overcome all that is dislocated and chaotic in life and bring His peace, His order and His harmony into the world around us.

The Baptised are to follow Jesus in loving service, self-sacrifice and final victory. Baptism puts us forever in the love of God.
